Tokyo bubble milk tea menu

Pick up order view cart from review. Cute and tasty Tokyo bubble tea cheap so my office colleague and I went out for our lunch at 2 in the morning and found a place to eat. We decided to speak Japanese and cooked at Tokyo Bubble Tea. We ordered bibimbap, seafood doria, Japanese Caesar salad and then added California... Maki. The first three dishes were fine, hot, fresh and had a taste of the old days. However, we found Kalimaki strangely salty. One of my friends ate his first mouth and found it salty. Another friend of mine took a second bite and also found it salty. BubbleTea being a block in the out office is an obvious ootion for wee time. This wasn't the first time I've ordered a California marquee. We called the attention of one of the servers, not the same server we ordered. We were informed that the maki was saltier than usual. He went to the kitchen and said if it was really tasty, it was a complete lie. We pointed out that it doesn't taste that way because we've played California Marquee before. There was no response, no apology, or no replacement for if they really figured out if Markey had done anything wrong. It was not very professional and we were really disappointed. Very disappointed and I just shared it. Services like this are inexcusable.
